

Performance tests assist the learner to evaluate his progress before moving on to the next lesson or level. A score board gives feedback on performance at every level of learning. Repetition of difficult lessons is encouraged if scores are low or for slow learners.